EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Dowell on November 23, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Specification

Please amend the specification by inserting the following paragraph before line 1 of page 20 as follows:

As shown in Figs. 5-11, when a purchaser has been authorized to access the purchasing data base of the invention, the purchaser is prompted not only to make various purchases by selection of a "BUY" option but is also prompted to indicate where purchased products are to be redeemed. As shown in Fig. 5, redemptions of purchases are selected from a plurality of different price zones across a given country or geographic area, such as different towns. At the time of purchase, the purchaser selects a price zone where the product is to be redeemed. The purchaser is also prompted to take other actions by selecting other options on the data base display. Such other options include; converting purchases between price zones by selecting the "CONVERT ZONE" option on the system display, transferring purchases to another entity by selecting the "TRANSFER" option, obtain transaction information relative to the purchasers account by selecting the "Transaction HISTORY" option, checking the account balances by selecting the "My Balance DETAILS" option, change purchaser profile information by selecting the "CHANGE Profile" option, and request information on location of redemption stations by selecting the "STATION Locator" option of the purchasing data base display of the invention.

Art Unit: 3625

In the Drawings

Reasons for Allowance

The invention claimed in the independent claims are distinguished from prior art of record, which contains no teachings or suggestions that would have motivated one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the method and system disclosed by Nicholson with the method and system of Chen and Zicker to have enabled a method and system for the subject matter recited in independent claims 6, 12 and 13. To begin with, Nicholson discloses a method and system for cross-selling products and increasing fuel sales as well the capability for purchasing future quantities of fuel at today's prices. Moreover, Nicholson discloses a method and system that provides a coded token for the redemption of fuel purchased for future use at today's price. Chen on the other hand discloses a method and system for bidding/purchasing by buyers on meals at current prices for redemption at a later date. In addition, Chen discloses a method and system that includes a registration module. In turn, Zicker discloses a method and system for multi mode, personal wireless communication system with pico cells that includes the capability to purchase a service package that provides for local use pricing zones. However, Nicholson does not disclose a pre-registration prior to purchase a quantity of a commodity to obtain a secure access code for establishing quantity credit account to be used for future redemption, with corresponding credit check as well as the capability to purchase quantities of a commodity in different geographic price zones nor converting quantities between zones. Chen does not disclose a method and system for secure access code for accessing a quantity credit account as well as the capability to purchase quantities of a commodity in different geographic price zones nor converting quantities between zones. In turn, Zicker in non analogous art does not disclose a method and system for pre-registration prior to purchase a quantity of a commodity to obtain a secure access code for establishing quantity credit account to be used for future redemption, with corresponding credit check as well as the capability to purchase quantities of a commodity in different geographic price zones nor converting quantities between zones. In that regard, the combined teachings of Nicholson, Chen and Zicker do not teach or suggest to one of ordinary skill that the differences between the subject matter recited in independent claims 6, 12 and 13 and the prior art are such that the subject matter as whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art. Therefore, the invention claimed in independent claims 6, 12 and 13 are distinguished from prior art of record by the fact that an electronic purchasing system for transacting the purchase of a commodity, which comprises: pre-registering a purchaser and e) thereafter, adjusting the quantity credit account to reflect the quantity of the commodity redeemed, wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity by selecting and purchasing a quantity of a commodity in one of a plurality of different geographical price zones as identified within said computer database; and wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity includes said purchaser being able to converting quantities of commodity purchased between said plurality of different geographical price zones.

Discussion of the most relevant prior art, which does not fully disclose nor render obvious the invention as stated in claims 6, 12 and 13:

A. US Patents and PG-Pubs.

(i) US 6,778,967 B1 to Nicholson discloses a method and system for cross-selling products and increasing fuel sales as well the capability for purchasing future quantities of fuel at today's prices. Moreover, Nicholson discloses a method and system that provides a coded token for the redemption of fuel purchased for future use at today's price. However, Nicholson does not disclose or teach or suggest to one of ordinary skill a method and system for an electronic purchasing system for transacting the purchase of a commodity, which comprises: pre-registering a purchaser and e) thereafter, adjusting the quantity credit account to reflect the quantity of the commodity redeemed, , wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity by selecting and purchasing a quantity of a commodity in one of a plurality of different geographical price zones as identified within said computer database; and wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity includes converting quantities of commodity purchased between said plurality of different geographical price zones. Thereby, this online method, medium and system disclosed by Ellis fails to anticipate the above bolded unique limitations or render them obvious.

(ii) US 6,741,969 B1 to Chen discloses a method and system for bidding/purchasing by buyers on meals at current prices for redemption at a later date. In addition, Chen discloses a method and system that includes a registration module. However, Chen does not disclose or teach or suggest to one of ordinary skill a method and system for a method and system for an electronic purchasing system for transacting the purchase of a commodity, which comprises: pre-registering a purchaser and e) thereafter, adjusting the quantity credit account to reflect the quantity of the commodity redeemed, , wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity by selecting and purchasing a quantity of a commodity in one of a plurality of different geographical price zones as identified within said computer database; and wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity includes converting quantities of commodity purchased between said plurality of different geographical price zones.. Thereby, this online method, medium and system disclosed by Chen fails to anticipate the above bolded unique limitations or render them obvious.

B. Non Patent Literature

(iii) “ Priceline.com adds gasoline to its lineup”; Priscilla Fusco; Austin American Statesman; Austin, Tx; Feb 26, 2000 (hereafter referred to as “Priceline”) discloses and teaches an ability to pre-purchase up to 50 gallons of gasoline per month in which potential sellers will accept the named price of the buyer. However, Priceline does not disclose or teach or suggest to one of ordinary skill a method and system for an electronic purchasing system for transacting the purchase of a commodity, which comprises: a method and system for an electronic purchasing system for transacting the purchase of a commodity, which comprises: pre-registering a purchaser and e) thereafter, adjusting the quantity credit account to reflect the quantity of the commodity redeemed, , wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity by selecting and purchasing a quantity of a commodity in one of a plurality of different geographical price zones as identified within said computer database; and wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity includes converting quantities of commodity purchased between said plurality of different geographical price zones. Thereby, this online method and system disclosed by Priceline fails to anticipate the above bolded unique limitations or render them obvious.

C. Foreign Patent Literature

(iv) JP 410111985A to Uchiyama discloses a method and system for an electronic cash register with a file for sale-by-time zones, which will total sales on quantities of items by time zone. However, Uchiyama does not disclose or teach or suggest to one of ordinary skill a method and system for an electronic purchasing system for transacting the purchase of a commodity, which comprises: a method and system for an electronic purchasing system for transacting the purchase of a commodity, which comprises: pre-registering a purchaser and e) thereafter, adjusting the quantity credit account to reflect the quantity of the commodity redeemed, , wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity by selecting and purchasing a quantity of a commodity in one of a plurality of different geographical price zones as identified within said computer database; and wherein said purchaser is able to purchase a selected quantity of at least one commodity includes converting quantities of commodity purchased between said plurality of different geographical price zones. Thereby, this online method, medium and system disclosed by Uchiyama fails to anticipate the above bolded unique limitations or render them obvious.

THE FORMAL WRITTEN REPLY TO THE LAST OFFICE ACTION MUST INCLUDE THE SUBSTANCE OF THE INTERVIEW. (See MPEP Section 713.04). If a reply to the last Office action has already been filed, APPLICANT IS GIVEN A NON-EXTENDABLE PERIOD OF THE LONGER OF ONE MONTH OR THIRTY DAYS FROM THIS INTERVIEW DATE, OR THE MAILING DATE OF THIS INTERVIEW SUMMARY FORM, WHICHEVER IS LATER, TO FILE A STATEMENT OF THE SUBSTANCE OF THE INTERVIEW. See Summary of Record of Interview requirements on reverse side or on attached sheet.

Summary of Record of Interview Requirements

Manual of Patent Examining Procedure (MPEP), Section 713.04, Substance of Interview Must be Made of Record

A complete written statement as to the substance of any face-to-face, video conference, or telephone interview with regard to an application must be made of record in the application whether or not an agreement with the examiner was reached at the interview.

Title 37 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) § 1.133 Interviews

Paragraph (b)

In every instance where reconsideration is requested in view of an interview with an examiner, a complete written statement of the reasons presented at the interview as warranting favorable action must be filed by the applicant. An interview does not remove the necessity for reply to Office action as specified in §§ 1.111, 1.135. (35 U.S.C. 132)

37 CFR §1.2 Business to be transacted in writing.

All business with the Patent or Trademark Office should be transacted in writing. The personal attendance of applicants or their attorneys or agents at the Patent and Trademark Office is unnecessary. The action of the Patent and Trademark Office will be based exclusively on the written record in the Office. No attention will be paid to any alleged oral promise, stipulation, or understanding in relation to which there is disagreement or doubt.

The action of the Patent and Trademark Office cannot be based exclusively on the written record in the Office if that record is itself incomplete through the failure to record the substance of interviews.

It is the responsibility of the applicant or the attorney or agent to make the substance of an interview of record in the application file, unless the examiner indicates he or she will do so. It is the examiner's responsibility to see that such a record is made and to correct material inaccuracies which bear directly on the question of patentability.

Examiners must complete an Interview Summary Form for each interview held where a matter of substance has been discussed during the interview by checking the appropriate boxes and filling in the blanks. Discussions regarding only procedural matters, directed solely to restriction requirements for which interview recordation is otherwise provided for in Section 812.01 of the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, or pointing out typographical errors or unreadable script in Office actions or the like, are excluded from the interview recordation procedures below. Where the substance of an interview is completely recorded in an Examiners Amendment, no separate Interview Summary Record is required.

The Interview Summary Form shall be given an appropriate Paper No., placed in the right hand portion of the file, and listed on the "Contents" section of the file wrapper. In a personal interview, a duplicate of the Form is given to the applicant (or attorney or agent) at the conclusion of the interview. In the case of a telephone or video-conference interview, the copy is mailed to the applicant's correspondence address either with or prior to the next official communication. If additional correspondence from the examiner is not likely before an allowance or if other circumstances dictate, the Form should be mailed promptly after the interview rather than with the next official communication.

The Form provides for recordation of the following information:

- Application Number (Series Code and Serial Number)
- Name of applicant
- Name of examiner
- Date of interview
- Type of interview (telephonic, video-conference, or personal)
- Name of participant(s) (applicant, attorney or agent, examiner, other PTO personnel, etc.)
- An indication whether or not an exhibit was shown or a demonstration conducted
- An identification of the specific prior art discussed
- An indication whether an agreement was reached and if so, a description of the general nature of the agreement (may be by attachment of a copy of amendments or claims agreed as being allowable). Note: Agreement as to allowability is tentative and does not restrict further action by the examiner to the contrary.
- The signature of the examiner who conducted the interview (if Form is not an attachment to a signed Office action)

It is desirable that the examiner orally remind the applicant of his or her obligation to record the substance of the interview of each case. It should be noted, however, that the Interview Summary Form will not normally be considered a complete and proper recordation of the interview unless it includes, or is supplemented by the applicant or the examiner to include, all of the applicable items required below concerning the substance of the interview.

A complete and proper recordation of the substance of any interview should include at least the following applicable items:

- 1) A brief description of the nature of any exhibit shown or any demonstration conducted,
- 2) an identification of the claims discussed,
- 3) an identification of the specific prior art discussed,
- 4) an identification of the principal proposed amendments of a substantive nature discussed, unless these are already described on the Interview Summary Form completed by the Examiner,
- 5) a brief identification of the general thrust of the principal arguments presented to the examiner,
(The identification of arguments need not be lengthy or elaborate. A verbatim or highly detailed description of the arguments is not required. The identification of the arguments is sufficient if the general nature or thrust of the principal arguments made to the examiner can be understood in the context of the application file. Of course, the applicant may desire to emphasize and fully describe those arguments which he or she feels were or might be persuasive to the examiner.)
- 6) a general indication of any other pertinent matters discussed, and
- 7) if appropriate, the general results or outcome of the interview unless already described in the Interview Summary Form completed by the examiner.

Examiners are expected to carefully review the applicant's record of the substance of an interview. If the record is not complete and accurate, the examiner will give the applicant an extendable one month time period to correct the record.

Examiner to Check for Accuracy

If the claims are allowable for other reasons of record, the examiner should send a letter setting forth the examiner's version of the statement attributed to him or her. If the record is complete and accurate, the examiner should place the indication, "Interview Record OK" on the paper recording the substance of the interview along with the date and the examiner's initials.

NEW YORK -- Priceline.com Inc., the "name-your-price" Web site, said Friday it will include gasoline in its expanding line of product offerings, promising drivers substantial savings compared with pump prices. Priceline.com, which already sells airline tickets, hotel rooms and groceries online, said beginning this summer buyers will be able to name their own price for up to 50 gallons of gasoline per month .

Priceline, based in Stamford, Conn., said it expects users of the service to save 10 cents to 20 cents a gallon compared with pump prices, as participating gas stations are expected to pay to get incremental business coming to their stations. Shoppers will be given at least three local stations from which to choose.

Prices will also be defrayed by online advertising and by support from major oil companies, who are expected to offer gas savings as a means of attracting new customers to their brands.

With gasoline prices at 9-year highs in many areas, Priceline said the time is right for the new service. Retail gas prices average $1.41 per gallon last week, up from about $1 a gallon a year earlier.

"It's great timing, based on the attention that the gas prices are receiving," said Priceline spokesman Robert Padgett. "We anticipate this offering will put 5 million new customers onto Priceline.com within the next two-years. It's very broad segment."

Priceline has been rapidly expanding its products from its core market for airline tickets. Earlier this week, Priceline board member Nancy Peretsman also said the company plans to add credit cards and telephone and utility services to its offerings.

Analysts said the addition of gasoline to its product line should add to the number of Priceline users who turn to the company's Web site for more than one product.

"I think it's just a continuation of the other services, an addendum to groceries," said Skip Wells, an analyst at Adams Harkness & Hill. "It makes it more likely you'll buy groceries at Priceline, (that) you'll buy airplane tickets at Priceline."
